At a meeting of the stockholders of the Deposit Bank of Carlisle last week Mr. Ed Rice, of North Middletown, was elected as a member of the Board of Directors. Handsome Home Burned.

The handsome home of Wm. Addams was burned in Cynthiana Tuesday morning. The fire started in a defective flue. All the household furnishings were rescued from the first floor, but the flames made great headway on the second and third floors as the water pipes did not have pressure enough to reach them. The loss is about $6,000 covered by insurance.

Mrs. McClintock Is Granted
Divorce.

The Court of Appeals yesterday reversed the decision of the Fayette Circuit Court in the divorce case of Mrs. Maggie McClintock against James D. McClintock, of this city. The Appellate Court directs that judgment be entered granting Mrs. McClintock a divorce from bed and board and a separate maintenance of $100 per month for the present. The suit was filed in the Fayette Circuit Court several months ago and in the decision of Judge Kerr the plaintiff was denied a divorce.

Mrs. Maggie Rogers McClintock was represented by Talbott & Whitley, of Paris, George R. Webb, of Lexington, Allen & Duncan, of Lexington, and Judge Denis Dundon, of Paris, represented Mr. McClintock.

Bourbon Fiscal Court in Session

Little business was before the Bourbon Fiscal Court at its regular monthly meeting yesterday. Squire L. J. Pretwell presided with Magistrates E. P. Thomason, R. H. Burris, J. J. Redmon, O. B. Lloyd, B. F. Stupp and G. K. Redmon present.

The report of Road Supervisor Redmon was submitted to the court and ordered made of record.

Claims to the amount of $720.40 were allowed and ordered paid, and the sum of $115 derived from rents was placed to the account of the Road Supervisor for use on the turnpikes.

County Clerk Paton was appointed a special commissioner to make and execute a deed from Bourbon county to the Louisville and Nashville railroad company for a small triangular piece of the jail property.

Girls Secure Game.

The management of the girls basketball team have finally been able to schedule a game on the High School floor for Saturday night, March 9. They take on the strong five from St. John's Collegiate Institute, Carlisle, Ky. This team defeated Caldwell High School by a decisive score and should give the local girls something to do. The local team has not lost a game this year. They have made a total of 140 points to their opponents 11. Only one team has been able to throw a goal against them, that being State University. Miss Chambers playing guard on the Paris team has not had a goal thrown over her this year. The whole team is playing championship ball and ought to go through the season with a clean record. This may be the last game on the local floor this season. The game will be called promptly at 7:30. The High School Band will furnish the music.

The two months old baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lora Gaunze was found dead in its mother's arms in bed Tuesday morning, about four o'clock. Coroner Rudolph Davis was summoned and rendered a verdict in accordance with the above facts. Mr. and Mrs. Gaunze are tenants on the W. A. Thompson place near North Middletown, and came there from Nicholas county almost a month ago. The body was buried at Salt Wells, Nicholas county, Wednesday.

Big Land Deal.

One of the largest land deals consummated in the mountains of Kentucky for some time was made a few days ago when Mr. Robert L. Thomas and the heirs of the late William R. Thomas, who for many years have operated the Ford Lumber Mills in Clark county, sold to an Eastern syndicate 23,000 acres of valuable coal and timber lands in Jackson and adjoining counties for approximately $470,000. The syndicate will cut the timber and develop the coal fields which are considered among the richest of Eastern Kentucky. Mrs. John T. Ireland, of Lexington, and Mrs. Thomas E. Moore, of Paris, two of the heirs of the late Captain James M. Thomas, of Paris, two or three years ago sold their one-half interest in the lands to W. R. Thomas and Robert L. Thomas for $50,000.

Appellate Court to Decide Primary Case.

Judge Charles Kerr in the Fayette Circuit Court yesterday afternoon made permanent the temporary restraining order issued last Saturday enjoining the Democratic Committee of the Seventh Congressional district from holding the Democratic primary Saturday, March 16, or from meeting in Lexington on Wednesday, March 6, and declaring J. Campbell Cantrill, the incumbent, or any other person the nominee of the Democratic party to succeed himself.

The injunction granted Thursday remains in force until dissolved by some judge of the Court of Appeals.

Maury Kemper, of counsel for the defendants, who are composed of the committeemen from the various legislative and county districts of the Seventh Congressional district, prayed an appeal from the decision of Judge Kerr to the Court of Appeals, which Judge Kerr granted.

The court in rendering the decision said that the order granting the injunction was made on the grounds that the members of the committee had not been sworn.

Judge Kerr said in rendering his decision that the court had great doubts as to whether he had jurisdiction in the case.

Some Lemon.

We were handed a lemon last week but it was only a curiosity in the fruit kingdom says the Carlisle Advocate. R. L. Wilson, of Millersburg, sent to our office a lemon that weighed two pounds and seven ounces and the circumference of which was 17 1/2 inches. Three years ago Mrs. Wilson was presented with the plant as a premium and last year five lemons equally as large as the one above stated grew. This year three grew all of which were the same size. It is a curiosity, being larger than medium size grape fruit.
